UPCOMING EVENTS

Art Raffle Event

Saturday, April 8th
12:00-3:00

Local artist Terry Newitt has painted a beautiful winter scene of the Claymont Stone School and the Darley House. (pictured above)

The watercolor will be on display during the Archmere Arts, Newitt and Students Art Show at the Darley Arts Center, (corner of Philadelphia Pike and Darley Road), on Friday, February 23rd from 5:00 to 8:00 PM and on Saturday, February 24th from 11AM until 5PM.

Raffle tickets for the watercolor will be sold during the art show at the Darley Art Center.

Come see the painting for yourself!

We will be holding the drawing on Saturday, April 8th at 1:00 at the Claymont Stone School. Doors open from noon until 3:00. Tickets to win this painting will be sold at $25.00. A minimum of 60 tickets must be sold to be a valid contest. You do not need to be present to win.

Signed prints will also be on sale on April 8th.

$80 for a print of the Terry Newitt watercolor.

Special Offer:

For $100 you will receive a signed Terry Newitt watercolor print of the Stone School and a Bill Tigani black and white print of the Stone School.

Call 302-792-2023 for information.

Girl Scout Tea Program

Saturday, March 11th
1:00-3:00

Girl Scouts will celebrate the life of Juliette Low and the 105th birthday of Girl Scouting in the USA. This popular program fills up fast.

This year is no exception. Call today to make a reservation. $15 for Scouts, $13 for adults

Claymont Remembered

Claymont Cooks!

Saturday, March 25th
1:00-3:00

Nothing stirs memories of yesteryear like Mom's special recipes.

Come share your memories as we enjoy a taste of the past. Claymont dishes from the recipe books of Atonement and Ascension Churches and local family recipes will be served. Bring in your special homemade food to share and take part in our tasting contest.

$5.00 for non members
Free to members

For more information, please call 302-792-2023.

RECENT EVENTS

Gingerbread House Contest

The 11th annual Gingerbread House Contest was a wonderful event. Seventeen creative pieces were entered in the contest. Contestants ranged in age from preschoolers to parents. Girl Scout Troop 953 won the People's Choice Award for their clever interpretation of Munchkin Land from "The Wizard of Oz". Of special note were the entries which featured Snow White and Seven Dwarfs modeled out of fondant and the Gingerbread Nativity scene.

There was even a gingerbread card and envelope "sent" from Santa and Mrs. Claus and addressed to the Stone School.

We would like to thank all of the contestants for participating in our contest.

Our judge had a challenging time because all of the entries were so wonderful.

Thank you to our judge, Alex Lehr Maunder, for her attention to detail and thoughtful and careful judging of each entry.

We would also like to thank our sponsors for providing funding, prizes and support.

This Place Matters

On Sunday November 13th, Education Director Riva Brown and Executive Director Carolyn Burlew of the Claymont Stone

School were warmly welcomed to the Hale -Byrnes House. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Burlew spoke to an appreciative audience about how the Stone School was saved and why it is an important historic site in Delaware.

Thank you to Kim Burdick for inviting the Stone School to be part of the lecture series; "This Place Matters".
